

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
June 6, 2010

ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY CHURCH

A JOYFUL WELCOME to the newest member of the Christian community, Clare Nicole Eilers, who will be baptized this Sunday. We offer our prayers and best wishes to her parents, Scott and Shelley Eilers, and grandmother Mary Kay Eilers.

WE PRAY FOR THOSE TO BE ORDAINED THIS WEEKEND. - Archbishop John Vlazny will ordain six priests and one transitional deacon this Saturday, June 5 at St. Mary's Cathedral. Ysreal Bien, Henry Guillen-Vega, Raul Marquez, Robert Wolf, Mark Kissner, OCD, and Joseph Nguyen, SDD will be ordained to the priesthood. Brother Joseph Nhat Hoang Dang, SDD will be ordained a transitional deacon. Congratulations and God's blessings to them all.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S GOLF INVITATIONAL is scheduled for Monday, September 24, 2010, at The Reserve Vineyards & Golf Club in Aloha, Oregon. Golfers from around the Archdiocese are invited to put together one or more foursomes to represent their parish and/or Catholic School.

A $600 entry fee entitles four golfers to tee prizes, lunch, practice balls, 18 holes of golf with a cart, and the awards dinner. Prizes are plentiful in this scramble format event, including a $50 Nike Bucks tee prize for all golfers to spend as you wish at the Nike Store on site that day. This could easily be your best tournament value of the season.

Archbishop Vlazny has chosen Archdiocesan Seminary Education to receive the proceeds from the ABGI. The Archdiocese is excited to have the largest class of seminarians in recent history studying for the priesthood. As the number of seminarians increases so does the need for financial support.

Team spots are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis so avoid disappointment and secure your spot early. For more information visit www.archdpx.org/resource-development/, or contact Doug Tollefson at the Archdiocese of Portland at 503-233-8336, or email at Sulrich@archdpx.org.

This celebration originated in the diocese of Liege (1246) on the basis of revelations of Juliana of Cornillon. It was accepted with such enthusiasm throughout Europe that in 1264 it was promulgated for the entire Latin Church. From the beginning the feast commemorated both the body and the blood of the Lord. This original unity has been restored in the post-Vatican II celebration.

Human beings are so essentially physical that even our language of the spirit derives from our bodies. To be a member of an organization requires that we be incorporated into that organization. Publications of societies are said to be organs of these groups.

Jesus and his Church have a keen grasp of this reality in the celebrations we call sacraments. Sacraments address themselves to the Church which is Christ's Body and to individual members of that body. The source and summit of all the Church's life is professed to be the celebration of the Eucharist where the Body of Christ partakes of what it is.

On this Sunday we celebrate our identity as Christ's Body. On this Sunday we profess our belief that the life-giving and life-supporting blood which flows among us is Christ's very life. On this Sunday we direct our attention to the symbol which makes all other symbols possible.

The earthly language of bodies and blood fills the scriptures. But those same scriptures proclaim that the pouring forth of blood is unto the nourishment of God's people. Flesh, blood, bread and wine are the products of destructive processes which bring them to human tables as food to sustain a family. Christ immersed himself in those processes which brought him to the table of the human family as the one food and drink which changes the eater into the eaten. In him we truly become what we eat and drink.

Family Faith Sharing Questions

Today's gospel fits our feast well. Luke tells us about the time Jesus fed the crowd with five loaves and two fish. The miracle of the loaves and fishes foreshadowed the most wonderful miracle of all. In the Eucharist, Jesus feeds as many as come to His table. There is enough food for the whole world.

How does Jesus "feed" you? How do you "feed" others?
