ST ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Cause for Celebration!

(as if we need one in this parish . . . but this really is a GREAT reason to celebrate!)

Father James Martin Kolb, C.S.P. was ordained as a Paulist Father 40 years ago TODAY – May 15, 1976. Please stay after 11 AM Mass or return to church around Noon on Sunday and join us in a celebration of this wonderful, inspiring, humorous*, compassionate man of God who we have been blessed to call our pastor for the last 14+ years! Let's give him reason to stick around a few more years.

Glücklicher Jahrestag Vater Jim. Wir lieben dich!

* "Paulists tend to be humorous. Much in the modern style, Paulists appreciate humor, irony and contrasts that make up life today. We try to be personable, accessible, laid-back and bridge-builders. A quip, a laugh, a smile—we try anything that will warm things up and help people feel drawn in."

NEW CHURCH DIRECTORY: An updated draft of our new Parish Directory is available for review in the back of the church. Please check it for accuracy!

Also, if you'd like to place an AD IN THE DIRECTORY, please contact Mark Myers-mark@myerspdx.net.

“Do not be surprised that I tell you that you must all be begotten from above . . . , but you do not know where it (the wind) comes from or where it goes” (John 3:7-8). Although Luke places the sending forth of the Spirit on Pentecost, fifty days after the Resurrection, John places it on Easter night. Each one, then, has his own way of portraying the glorification of Jesus. For John, this glorification took place when he was raised up on the cross. For both, the Spirit is the fruit of the victory Christ won by his death and resurrection. Pentecost cannot be separated from Easter.

But why must the disciples receive the Spirit? From Luke’s perspective, they must receive the Spirit to be able to speak to all in their proper language and thus inaugurate the universal mission of the Church. John does not say anything different, but he says it in a different way. The apostles are in the upper room with all the doors locked for fear of the Jews. They are afraid and their fear is contagious. They are attentive to every sound outside. They fear arrest. Suddenly, Jesus is there in their midst: “Peace be with you!” Peace is what they lack most in this atmosphere of anxiety. Jesus still carries the marks of his passion. He is there, alive and stronger than death. The doors which were once locked no longer hinder his mission.

The hour is no longer one of self-centered fear. Now is the time to allow Spirit to shatter all barriers and lead the Church where God wills.”

Rev. James Martin Kolb, C.S.P., Pastor

My son, you are now to be advanced to the order of the presbyterate. You must apply your energies to the duty of teaching in the name of Christ, the chief Teacher. Share with all mankind the word of God you have received with joy. Meditate on the law of God, believe what you read, teach what you believe, and put into practice what you teach.

Let the doctrine you teach be true nourishment for the people of God. Let the example of your life attract the followers of Christ, so that by word and action you may build up the house which is God's Church.

In the same way you must carry out your mission of sanctifying in the power of Christ. Your ministry will perfect the spiritual sacrifice of the faithful by uniting it with Christ's sacrifice, the sacrifice which is offered sacramentally through your hands. Know what you are doing and imitate the mystery you celebrate. In the memorial of the Lord's death and resurrection, make every effort to die to sin and to walk in the new life of Christ.

When you baptize, you will bring men and women into the people of God. In the sacrament of penance, you will forgive sins in the name of Christ and the Church. With holy oil you will relieve and console the sick. You will celebrate the liturgy and offer thanks and praise to God throughout the day, praying not only for the people of God but for the whole world. Remember that you are chosen from among God's people and appointed to act for them in relation to God. Do your part in the work of Christ the Priest with genuine joy and love, and attend to the concerns of Christ before your own.

Finally, conscious of sharing in the work of Christ, the Head and Shepherd of the Church, and united with the bishop and subject to him, seek to bring the faithful together into a unified family and to lead them effectively, through Christ and in the Holy Spirit, to God the Father. Always remember the example of the Good Shepherd who came not to be served but to serve, and to seek out and rescue those who are lost.
