

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 29, 2017

ST. ELIZABETH CATHOLIC CHURCH

REFORMATION SUNDAY - We share this day with other Christians, admitting our sins and divisions of the past. We pray together Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper, "Father that they may all be one." The ecumenical message of Vatican II has been a constant challenge to work together with other Christian traditions to the best of our ability to unify the body of Christ. We pray with all as we remember this 500th Anniversary.

Beginning this weekend and throughout the month of November, our Book of Remembrance will be placed on the table to the right as you enter the sanctuary and will be brought up to the altar with the gifts. All parishioners are invited to inscribe the names of deceased loved ones you would like to be remembered.

We're collecting winter coats, sweaters, sweatshirts, turtlenecks, long-sleeved shirts, jeans, shoes & boots, gloves, hats, warm scarves, new socks & new underwear. WE CANNOT COLLECT CLOTHING AFTER NOVEMBER 5TH. Your response thus far has been fantastic. “Be holy, for I, the Lord your God , am holy” (Lev 19:2). The people of God must take God as their model. He is loving and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in mercy. In his fidelity, he cares for those who cannot help themselves. The widow, the alien, the orphan are under his special protection (Exod 22:22; Deut 14:29).

The people bound to him by covenant must also show their fidelity by caring for the powerless. All the detailed laws of the covenant lead back to this basic principle: the sole demand of God is love.

Jesus says that the second commandment is like the first. In fact it is the manifestation of the first. If you love the Lord your God with your whole being, that love will show itself in the feeding of the hungry, the sheltering of the homeless, the released of the oppressed. Jesus, the supreme revelation of the Father's love (John 3:16), showed the depth of that love by giving his life for us when we were still powerless (Rom 5:6). The sign that we are his disciples is our love for one another (John 13:35).

All Saints' Day Reflection

We often run the risk of considering the saints as superhuman, escaping the common lot of mortals by their miracles and their exceptional strength of soul. There again, if we look closely, we see that their faults of character were not always overcome. The saints remained subject to their passions but placed them at the service of their holiness. For holiness itself is passion converted.
