Luke reports one of the appearances of the Risen One to the apostles (Acts 1:3). In order to convince them, the Lord allows them to touch him and he eats before their eyes. It is really he, the Crucified, alive once more. It is he, altogether different and yet the same. He casts the light of his Passover upon the sacred scriptures in order to illumine the past and announce the future: "In his name, penance for the remission of sins is to be preached to all the nations beginning at Jerusalem."

"They were all incredulous for sheer joy. . ." Still today, divided as we often are between doubt and belief, we find it difficult to recognize in faith the person of the One who lives in our midst. Yet we encounter him at eucharist. We see him in the assembly gathered in his name. We hear him in the words of those who have borne witness to him in the scriptures. We know him once again in the breaking of the bread. We experience the power of his spirit and we are sent out into the world to spread the good news from person to person. As we live our daily lives, then, nourished by the word and the bread we have shared, we recognize indeed that he is risen and living among us.

Support Catholic Charities' work providing life-changing services to immigrant and refugee communities in Oregon. Catholic Charities' legal team provides consultation or representation to over 4,000 low-income immigrants throughout the state of Oregon each year. Despite a sharp decline in refugee arrivals, its refugee services team continues to welcome and integrate refugees into American society, while maintaining the respect and dignity of each individual and their unique culture and traditions. In short, Catholic Charities works to keep families together.
