Today we are invited to reflect on life and to hope in an imperishable existence. We rarely advert to life until it is threatened. Then it appears all the more precious to us for its very fragility.

The faith of Jairus, whose twelve-year-old daughter is at death's door, and the faith of that desperate woman, whose life has been ebbing away with her blood for twelve years, should be our faith. At the juncture of these two intertwining stories, there is in fact but one point of emphasis. Jesus does not disdain the naïve, almost superstitious faith of the woman with a hemorrhage who furtively touches him in the hope of being healed. Nor does he ignore the frantic faith of Jairus who has no other answer for the doubting crowd. To them, it is all too clear that no one can do anything against death. For Jesus, death is but a sleep which awakens to a morning of resurrection.

Hope sleeps in each of us. We must regularly take its hand, awaken it, set it in motion. This marvel is possible only by faith in the One who can make our nights, however dark they may be, give way to an Easter morning.
