

TWENTY – EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 14, 2018

St. Elizabeth Catholic Church

The CHURCH KEYS are missing! The keys from the upstairs closet disappeared the weekend of September 29-30. If you used them, please check your pockets. We need them returned!

Next Sunday is WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: Support the priests, religious Sisters and Brothers and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. In places like Uganda where people face food uncertainty and violence, in the Philippines where local clergy face martyrdom, in Oceania where peoples' livelihoods are threatened by climate change, and in remote regions of Latin America where people are hearing the Gospel for the first time. Please take an envelope and consider what you can give in next week's collection. Thank you!

For those of you who asked about those BOOKS FR. JIM MENTIONED IN LAST WEEK'S HOMILY: The Two Part Invention by Madeline L'Engel and For Better or Worse: Sober thoughts On Passionate Promises by James Burtchaell. They are both available on Amazon and the first is in the Multnomah County Library.

JOIN THE CHOIR FOR ST. NICK FESTIVAL, ADVENT & CHRISTMAS!

Choir practice begins Tuesday, October 30th from 6:30 to 8:15 pm and continues each Tuesday Through December 18th. Get in the spirit of the holiday season – sing with the choir!

It's that time of year again . . . CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL OPEN HOUSES:

We Need Your Help! TRANSITION PROJECTS VOLUNTEERS:

St. Elizabeth's long-standing ministry at Transition Projects needs additional volunteers. Ideally, we need six people willing to commit to this project. Interested? Contact Jean Horton, jhorton150@comcast.net or Pat Fleck, 503-274-4421 for more details or call Elizabeth in the church office, 503-222-2168.

WE ARE STILL RECRUITING NEW READERS, EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS, USHERS, COFFEE & DONUT HOSTS, WINE & CHEESE HOSTS! Please help out by signing up in the gathering area.

MEASURE 106 – Vote YES to limit tax payer funding of Abortions:

Archbishop Sample, Bishop Liam Cary and Bishop Peter Smith fully support Measure 106 and encourage all Catholics to do the same.

Francine Cardman has suggested that Eucharist must be understood in the light of Jesus' postresurrection breaking the bread with the disciples, as well as in view of the Last Supper. Then "eating and drinking with the Risen Jesus [becomes] a new way of living in the world, and that new way is almost limitless in its social, political and economic implications. For the Eucharist to remain only inward or spiritual is to blaspheme the sacrament." Such an understanding of Eucharist could hardly be more important for the church's involvement in global resource issues.

To involve human food and drink symbolically in a meal of love implies at the very least that in real life we have done nothing to deprive others of them; and, even further, that we are doing or have done . . . everything that is humanly and Christianly necessary and possible to ensure that these elementary supplies are produced in sufficient quantity and shared equitably. If this were not done, to take the bread and wine and offer them to the Lord would become intolerably false, since we would be seeking to give God with one hand what we were unjustly withholding from men with the other.
