We are Grateful to have you as our Priest and our Friend!

The EASTER LILLIES are past their prime and looking for permanent homes. If you'd like to take some plants home, they are located in the area between the church and Fr. Jim's house. Help yourself!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES 2019 ANNUAL CAMPAIGN- Your generosity allows Catholic Charities to provide meaningful help to the most vulnerable in our community. Envelopes are available in the pews. Please mail your gift directly to Catholic Charities or return it to church and place it in the regular collection over the next few weeks. Thank you for your generosity!

OPERATION RICE BOWL: Thank you to everyone who participated in Operation Rice Bowl this Lent. Please return your rice bowls to the basket on the table in the gathering area.

TRANSITION PROJECTS: Over the next several weeks, we will celebrate Undies Sundays! Transition Projects is in desperate need of men's boxers and briefs. Obviously, they must be new. If you can pick up a package the next time you're at Costco or Fredies, etc. and drop them off before Mass, you will be helping out tremendously. Just boxers & briefs--no socks or undershirts needed at this time. Thank you!

Also, our collection of TOILETRIES for Transition Projects' clients is an ongoing project. If you travel this summer, pick up those hotel sized shampoos, lotions, soaps, etc., and drop them off in the box on the counter next to the front door.

ST. ELIZABETH COOKBOOK - Keep those recipes coming! Send your recipes to Angelica Duffy at orduffys@gmail.com or drop them off in the church office. Bon Appetite!

The few verses which end Jesus' discourse on the Good Shepherd sum up the Christian experience of communion with the Lord. Jesus presents himself as the gate of the sheep and their shepherd, but his adversaries have no use for allegory. They challenge him: "If you are the messiah, tell us so in plain words!" (John 10:24). In answer, Jesus describes the attitude the sheep must adopt toward him, the attitude of believers toward the one sent by God.

The source of the communion between Christ and Christians is the union of the Father and the Son: "The Father and I are one." Christ himself is our way to this union: "My sheep hear my voice and they follow me." The Father has entrusted his sheep to Jesus, and Jesus leads them to eternal life. The gate is his cross. He is both the shepherd and the lamb who is sacrificed. He has redeemed us with his life. Therefore, his life is ours: we live in him.
