Urgency marks the beginning of Jesus' farewell discourse: "now. . .soon. . . not much longer. . ." Soon Jesus will no longer be with his disciples. They must pass from the experience of his bodily presence to the faith in his invisible presence. To experience in faith a presence in absence is the whole of Christian life until the parousia.

Through the mutual love between the disciples, the permanent presence of the Risen One is assured and manifested in the world. This mutual love characterizes our history during the time between Jesus' departure and his final return.
